Medics Supporting Medic's Mental Health

Source: <https://sharedhealthmb.ca/news/2022-05-20-medics-supporting-medics-mental-health/>

Being a paramedic requires specialized training. It's a role that requires an individual to work in high-pressure, fast-paced and adrenaline-fueled environments every day. It's also a profession that is grounded in compassion, where caring for patients during some of their most vulnerable moments is a common part of the job.

As many health care providers can confirm, when pressure and stress are always high, it can take a toll on your mental wellness.

"It doesn't always matter how strong you are individually or how many years you have been on the job," said Kerry Wilson, South Zone EMS Superintendent, Shared Health. "I think of it like a filing cabinet that's reaching capacity. There's a point where you try and shove in more files of difficult or challenging calls in and then the whole drawer pops right open."

Wilson is intimately familiar with the job, having worked as a paramedic for the past 20 years. In his role as superintendent, Wilson supervises paramedic teams working out of 19 stations across the South zone. He also played a key role in creating the Mental Health Wellness team – a colleague-to-colleague support for team members navigating difficult emotions or outcomes from challenging calls.

The Mental Health Wellness team is a volunteer-based program built to be proactive and reactive, providing supports for members of the team through workshops and accessible resources but also the personal connection of having another paramedic check in on them.

"The reality is sometimes we cope well, and sometimes we don't – and that's okay," said Evelyn Hoogerdijk, South Zone EMS Quality Officer with Shared Health. "You never know what might be a trigger. That's why our peer support team offers a safe space for people to speak up if they need it and we make sure there is a voice and an ear on the other end of the line."

As part of this initiative, Wilson gets notified of challenging calls and delegates a Mental Health Wellness Team member to follow up with the individuals on the call.

Individuals on the Mental Health Wellness Team are interviewed and specifically chosen to ensure they are a good fit. Each team member receives specialized training to support their peers, to help them navigate tough calls and to notice if a colleague may be struggling with a type of mental health crisis or injury.

Calls with the Mental Health Wellness team remain confidential and provide a safe space for paramedics to tell their story. If there are any indications of self or future harm the call will be escalated. Early recognition is key and follow-up calls, as Wilson puts it, help to unload some of the difficult files from the cabinet.

"Being a paramedic is a rewarding career and there are moments where you know you've made a difference, even if you don't hear it, and that feeling is bigger than any paycheck," described Wilson. "But I know how this job can wear on you and I truly care about my team going home and being happy and healthy for their families and loved ones. It makes for a better environment for everybody."

Wilson's top mental health wellness tips:

1. Know your limitations – sometimes the cabinet is full. Recognize your capacity.
2. Find what coping mechanisms work best for you.
3. Remember it is okay to not be okay and it's okay to talk about it. Reach out when you need help.

During Paramedic Services week, May 22-28, Shared Health recognized the courage and commitment of Manitoba emergency response teams, including emergency medical staff, first responders, dispatchers and paramedics – who answer the call for help every day and keep our communities safe.

Northern Pintail

No other American duck has the body shape of a pintail, either on the water or in the air. It holds its long slender neck erect and its long pointed tail at an upward angle on the water. In flight pintails are long and slender with a white trailing edge on the inner wing.

The Northern Pintail is a dabbling duck; it prefers shallow freshwater, where it feeds primarily on vegetable material. Flocks of pintails have the reputation of losing altitude rapidly, zig-zagging in for a landing from considerable heights on wings that produce an audible "swish" and planing directly into a landing. They are low-flying on breeding grounds. Nesting individuals are sometimes killed by hitting utility wires and fences.

The nest is lined with grasses, mosses, leaves and added down. It is on dry ground among short vegetation near water. The female builds the nest.

Incubation is 22-25 days by the female. The young leave the nest within a few hours of hatching. Their first flight is at 36-57 days. The young are tended by the female but they find their own food. There is one brood per year.

The Northern Pintail is abundant in the west and very common in the east. Although they are widespread and abundant some surveys show a decline since the 1960s. As with other dabbling ducks, lead shot ingested from bottom ooze often leads to death.

News from Here, There and Anywhere

Reporter: Teri Soos

Hello There. Can you imagine that after such a dry spell we have now had too much rain? I've been told that there was at least 2 inches of rain here in Gladstone a couple of nights ago (May 30th). That was far too much for the land that was already saturated. The land around Woodside is flooded for quite a few miles. It is the first of June already and there is very little crop put in. It's going to be a mad race if it is going to be seeded in time for it to mature for harvest time. We can hope for a long fall. If we have an early fall I'm afraid that some of the crops might not be ready. I'm sure that the farmers that were able to fertilize last fall are happy they did, making for one less job this spring.

As far the gardens, it is hard to say if they will amount to anything this year being planted later. The night temperatures are still pretty low for this time of year which also slows things down. Maybe things will turn around and we will get a real warm spell. You just never know what the year will bring.

Have you ever noticed how many trains come through Gladstone? I can see the tracks from my window and see the many trains that pass through. They are going either east or west. Some are so very long. My sister and brother-in-law from the states can't get over how long our trains are. There is often a mix of oil cars, grain cars and other cargo cars. The trains seem to travel all night long. I can hear the train whistles from my room during the night.

There hasn't been a lot going on lately. For one it has been pretty cool but also there have been so many storms. Sometimes we get snow, sometimes we get rain. Hopefully the weather will straighten out and we will have some nice weather.

I've noticed that there are some plant sales going on. I don't know how they are going. It has been so cool I'm not sure people are ready to put their plants out. Hopefully the wild fruit trees will produce some fruit this year. Do you think the blossoms will have survived this storm?

We lost a dear friend recently. Rena Arksey passed away on May 9th. Rena was in the hospital for some time when she passed away. She was 95 years old. Rena was always very involved with things going on in the community. She was always helpful with this newspaper as she kept up with lots of different people and often phoned me with some information that could be included in the newspaper. We will certainly miss her input. Rena was also an active member of the Langruth United Church. Rena's sons often contributed to the community as well even though they don't live here anymore. Rena will be dearly missed. Her funeral service will be on June 8th at the Langruth United Church.

We also heard of the passing of Marilyn Nazar on May 22nd. Many will remember Marilyn as she was a teacher at Langruth Elementary School for a number of years. Deepest sympathy to Marilyn's family and friends on her passing.

Did anyone notice the picture of Henry and Elsie Mozdzen in the Neepawa Banner (May 20th issue)? Their picture reminded me of Henry's sister-in-law Margaret (Maggie) Mozdzen. She worked in the bank here in Langruth for a short while. She and Velma Vereb worked together. Margaret lived most of her life in the Alonsa area. I remember going to pick raspberries around her and her husband Mike's farm. Velma and I didn't have too much time because we were getting ready for the Alonsa parade the following day. We did get our fill of some lovely raspberries. Maggie passed away in January of 2014.

I often see pictures of people in the newspaper that I know. I recently saw a picture of Ann and Stan Faurschou. The Faurschous lived on what is now called Road 51 (the Freeway) 1/2 mile south of the Hollywood Beach Road, later moving to Portage. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. We wish them all the best.

Happy birthday goes out to Ralph Thompson. He will be celebrating his 91st birthday at the beginning of June. Happy birthday Ralph! Best wishes for a great year ahead.

We will be getting our fourth COVID vaccine shot in the next few days. I'm guessing that we will probably get a fifth shot in the fall with our regular flu shots.

News from Here, There ... con't

I went to Winnipeg to get some medication for my heart. I'm not sure if it is working or not but at least I am sleeping better.

As I have been saying for the last number of months, there isn't much community news. Hopefully more community events and activities will start up again now that we don't have the public health restrictions that we had for the last couple years.

I did hear that the Langruth Seniors were having their monthly meetings and suppers again. Please contact Margaret Whitely for more information about the seniors club. She submits information to be included in the newspaper now that their meetings have resumed. The next seniors supper will be on June 29th. This is always a nice evening to visit with friends and neighbors.

There are a few people from the Langruth area living here at Centennial Apartments in Gladstone. Marg Soos, Marion Huyber and Raymond O'Connor have lived here for quite a while now. Les Arksey also moved here a little while ago. I hope I didn't miss anyone.

We play bingo here a couple afternoons a week. It is a small group that plays but it is still nice to have a visit with everyone. There are a few people that like to work on puzzles. Some have lot of pieces! They are beautiful works of art really. Some people are putting flowers outside at the front of the building. We are hoping they won't freeze.

There are a number of different types of birds in my backyard lately. There are orioles, humming birds, canaries and flocks of little birds. They seem to like the big spruce tree. The people two doors down put out lots of bird seed. There is always a lot for them to eat. I won a little bird house recently which I am hoping to put out in the yard somewhere. The deer come in to see what they can find to eat too. I don't see too many deer right now. I suppose they are hiding away having their little ones. When they do come around they like to eat the grass and poke around the bird feeders.

Hopefully the lady slippers are out this year. I would love to see them again. They smell and look nice. Last year they grew very short.

The trees are certainly slow in leafing out. Hopefully with some warmer weather they will get their leaves for the summer. They certainly must be well watered with the amount of rain that we have had lately.

Madison Teichroeb has been dropping off and picking up the voice recorder for her mother, Michelle. It has been nice to have short visits with her and hear about what she has been up to. She works at the vet clinic here in Gladstone a couple days a week and quite enjoys it.

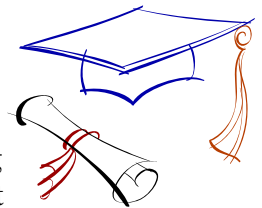

That all I have for this time. Take care.

Until next month,

Teri Soos

What Happened With the Petition for the 3 Ward System and How Did Council Vote?

Submitted by Phyllis Thordarson

These are two questions I am often asked as I initiated the petition that requested the Municipality of Westlake-Gladstone return to the Ward System of government. The municipality is currently represented by the At-Large System of government. The Municipality of WestLake-Gladstone had the Ward System in place for the first four years after amalgamation. I will outline the events.

The petition stated the following:

We, the citizens of the Municipality of WestLake-Gladstone, hereby request that the At-Large System of government that is presently in place in our municipality be replaced by the 3 Ward System that went into effect when the three municipalities amalgamated in 2014, for the 2022-2026 term.

I signed and initiated this petition on October 27th, 2021 and handed it into the municipal office on November 9th, 2021.

The petition was circulated in the Gladstone, Westbourne, Langruth and Plumas areas for only 14 days. 234 legal signatures had been collected when it was handed in to the municipal office. This met the legal time requirements to have the matter voted on and a new By-Law created if the representation system was to be changed. It had to be done quickly because the municipal act states the following in relation to wards.

Section 87 (3) A by-law under this section must:

- (a) take effect only at a general election; and*
- (b) be passed at least 180 days before the general election at which it is to take effect.*

Further, if council chooses to create a by-law for a ward system, public notice of the proposed by-law needs to be given prior to the third reading and it is council's decision to use the ward system or not.

On November 17th, 2021, at 10:00 a.m., I appeared as a delegation to council to further explain why the petition was created. Access TV recorded this presentation and discussion.

On December 15th, 2021 Councillor Bud Sigurdson submitted this notice of motion.

"I am requesting that Council have a vote to bring back the 'Three Ward System' of voting as took place in the 2014 election for Council. The three wards are to be East Ward, West Ward and the Town of Gladstone with the voting borders the same as the 2014 election. There will be 2 Councillors elected from each ward. This would only be for election purposes as all Councillors would be required to represent all wards."

Bud Sigurson's notice of motion was brought forward and discussed at the January 19th, 2022 council meeting. It is my understanding and belief that the final resolution that was voted on was clearly different than Bud's original notice of motion submitted on December 15th 2021. In order to verify this I purchased a DVD copy of both my presentation to council on November 17th, 2021 and the January 19th, 2022 public council proceedings from Access TV. Council's discussion lasted close to an hour. I encourage everyone to view the video to understand how the resolution that was voted on was changed from Bud Sigurdson's original notice of motion. According the January 19th, 2022 minutes, the resolution voted on was:

"Now Therefore Be It Resolved that for the 2022 Municipal Election council choses to remain at large".

The recorded vote, according to the January 19th, 2022 minutes, indicates that both Bud Sigurdson and Gerald Doell voted against remaining at large. Randy Bjarnarson, Dawn Coubrough, Monica Ferguson, Scott Kinley and Darcy Meloney voted in favour of remaining at large. This motion was carried.

If anyone is interested in viewing the videos of the presentation and proceedings I still have the DVD's. If you signed the petition and would like to view the public record of the events that can be arranged.

Obituary: Rena Gudlaug Arksey
June 8, 1926 – May 9, 2022

Mom passed away peacefully on Monday, May 9th. She is survived by her four sons, Walter (Barbara), Barry (Brenda), Gerald (Candis), and Harley, her sister Blanche, her brother Robert (Fern), her sister in law Cathy, her grandchildren Marieka (Patrick), Natasha, Christopher (Laurie), Trevor (Nadine), Linda (Martin), her great grandchildren Caleb, Mackenzie, Charlotte, Samson, Henry, Adam, Jessa as well as many nieces, nephews and friends.

She is pre-deceased by her sisters Sigga, Louise, brothers Tom, John, Francis, daughter in law Mary and her special friend Earl.

Mom was born and raised on the farm in Langruth, Manitoba. She attended the Big Point School where her mother was her first teacher. She enjoyed helping out around the farm and said that she had so much fun just playing around at home with her brothers and sisters.

She worked at the Royal Bank and the Post Office. She was a dedicated mother who raised four boys on her own during very trying times.

She enjoyed her volunteer work with the United Church Ladies and Legion Ladies Auxiliary. She was a member for over 70 years.

Mom was a very caring person and her direct personality did not leave you guessing as to what she was thinking.

Her memory was impeccable. If we ever got into a discussion about who lived where or who was related to whom, all we had to do was phone mom.

Mom was proud of her boys, and made sure that they did not forget their family roots.

She really enjoyed getting together with people, especially at family events.

In 2016, she moved to Victoria Place in Macgregor, where she made many new friends. Hazel visited with Mom every night and they even watched some hockey games together, which was an accomplishment because Mom was not that fond of hockey.

We would like to thank all the health care workers at the St. Claude Health Centre who provided care for mom until her passing.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Langruth United Church, Box 232, Langruth, MB R0H 0N0 or the Big Point Cemetery, c/o Lydia Johnson, Box 81, Langruth, MB R0H 0N0.

Service to be held on Wednesday, June 8th at 2 pm at the Langruth United Church. Reception to follow at the Community Hall.
