Annual Tree Lighting Tradition Continues in Langruth

On Friday, November 24th Einarson Park in Langruth was filled with song and festivities. Carolers sang a number of carols to kick off the Christmas season and light the community Christmas tree. Thank you to Philip Thordarson for leading the caroling and Tom Teichroeb for supplying wood for the bonfire. Thank you to the Municipal Public Works for setting up the community Christmas tree.

The fireworks following the caroling were once again a great finale. Kory and Dallas Jonasson, volunteers with the Lakeview Fire Department, set off the fireworks. Fireworks were provided by the Lakeview Initiatives C.D.C. Thank you to Marlin Johnson at MJ Stop N' Shop for donating additional fireworks for the evening.

Hot chocolate and cookies were enjoyed by all at Langruth Elementary School. Thank-you to everyone who donated cookies and thank-you to the school staff for setting up the tables. Thank-you to Phyllis and Philip Thordarson and Harry Lazor for getting the cookies and hot chocolate ready at the school.

The annual tree lighting night was once again an enjoyable night of community fellowship and a great way to start the Christmas season.

Fifty and Beyond News

Reporter: Margaret Whiteley

The Langruth Seniors held a business meeting on November 1st, 2023. Harry Lazor called the meeting to order at 2:00 pm with 5 people present.

Last month's minutes were read and adopted by Margaret Whiteley, seconded by Joey Johnson.

The Cheer Report was given by Ann Craik. One birthday card was sent out during the month.

Margaret Whiteley will be retiring from her position of Secretary/Treasurer as of December 31st. The Langruth Seniors would like to thank Margaret for her years of service. Joey Johnson made a motion for Ann Craik to temporarily take over the position of Secretary/Treasurer. Seconded by Lydia Johnson. Carried.

The Langruth Seniors is in need of additional members to help arrange the monthly Seniors Suppers. Ann Craik made a motion that if no new interest is shown to arrange the Seniors Suppers etc. that the club dissolves. Seconded by Margaret Whiteley. Carried.

The Senior's Christmas Dinner was held on December 2nd with 18 people attending. Everyone enjoyed some caroling after dinner with Philip and Phyllis Thordarson leading. It was an enjoyable evening.

The next meeting will be on December 6th, 2023.

Margaret Whiteley closed the meeting at 3:05 pm. Seconded by Ann Craik. Carried.

The Langruth Seniors is in need of new members to help with arranging the Seniors Suppers in Langruth.

If you are 50 years and older, please consider volunteering so the suppers will continue to be offered to seniors from the Langruth area and neighboring communities.

Contact Ann Craik at 204-445-2349 for more information.

American Crow

One of the most widely distributed and recognized birds in North America, the American Crow is entirely black from beak to toe to tail with a glossy violet sheen. Studies of these intelligent birds have shown that they can count, solve puzzles, learn symbols, and retain information. They are often seen chasing and mobbing owls and hawks.

Flocks from a few hundred to as many as two hundred thousand birds may assemble in winter to roost, travel and feed together. Often persecuted, shot, poisoned, and even bombed on the roost in the past, crows still live among us by their intelligence and adaptability and are common throughout their range. They have been widely persecuted in the past by farmers and hunters. They are still legally hunted for sport.

Crows eat insects, many other small invertebrates from millipedes to snails, small amphibians, small reptiles, small mammals, eggs and the young of other birds, waste corn and other grains, fruits, field crops, garbage and carrion. Like mobs of avian predators, gangs of crows gather together to harass a large hawk or owl on a perch or drive it out of the area. They catch up to soaring hawk and repeatedly dive on it from above, often forcing it down into the shelter of trees below. Crows break mollusk shells by dropping them on rocks from above.

The nest of the American Crow is made of twigs and branches, lined with tree material, grass, feathers, moss, leaves, and hair in the fork of a tree or shrub up to 30 m above the ground. It is sometimes on the ground in prairie areas. The nest is built by both sexes, sometimes helped by extra birds.

Incubation is 18 days by both sexes. The young are brooded by the female and remain in the nest for 28-35 days. They typically have one brood per year but can have 2 per year in the south.

News from Here, There and Anywhere

Reporters: Michelle Teichroeb and Teri Soos

Hello Everyone. The hustle and bustle of December is upon us. It certainly doesn't feel like December with the warm weather that we have had lately and the lack of snow. I like to have some snow with the cooler weather to brighten things up.

I didn't get to talk with Teri Soos this month as she has been in the hospital. Her niece, Louise Emerson, said that she is feeling better and is regaining her strength. We send get well wishes to Teri and anyone else that is feeling under the weather. I've heard of a few people having the flu. Some have tested positive for COVID. We hope you get your rest and are able to celebrate Christmas with your friends and family.

The Annual Langruth Tree Lighting was held on November 24th. There was a nice crowd of carolers to kick off the season. I thought the fireworks were especially good this year.

The Langruth Elementary School PAC held a Merchandise Bingo Fundraiser on December 1st. It was very well attended. I didn't have any cards that were close to winning but it was still a fun night. It was nice to see the original bingo machine and bingo board used again. There was a variety of prizes that were donated by the students' families, school staff and community.

The following night the Langruth Seniors held their Christmas Dinner. I'm sure everyone enjoyed the visit. On December 9th the Kinrossa Game and Fish Association will have their awards banquet. It is usually well attended as it is always a nice evening.

On December 17th the Langruth Community Sunday School will have the annual Christmas Concert and Pot-Luck Dinner. Everyone is welcome to attend and share the traditional Christmas story and some caroling. The concert will begin at 4:30 pm with supper to follow.

The Elementary School Concert will be held on December 19th at the hall. Everyone is welcome to attend and celebrate the Christmas season with the students. I heard there might be a special visitor at the end of the evening!

News from Here, There .. con't

Best wishes to anyone that celebrated a birthday or an anniversary lately. Happy 80th birthday to Jim Magnusson who celebrated his birthday on November 18th. We hope that your day was special.

I saw an obituary for Ann Kuharski (nee Sigurdson) who passed away on October 13th at the Neepawa Hospital. Ann grew up in the Lakeland area and was the late Einar and Margaret Sigurdson's daughter. She was an active 4H member, grooming and showing cattle at many fairs. Ann was living in Neepawa with her husband Leonard. We send our deepest sympathy to the Kuharski family and anyone else who has lost family or friends recently. We hope that your happy memories help you through the coming days.

We have heard of a few more incidents of theft and crime in the area recently. Please protect your properties and be on the lookout for suspicious activities. If you notice anything suspicious in the area, report it to the police.

Work at the Langruth Skating Rink has not begun due to the warmer weather. Hopefully the ice can be started once the weather is cool enough. The ice is usually ready for the first of January. Save the date for the Annual Curling Bonspiel! It is tentatively set for February 24th, 2024.

When the snow arrives – it is bound to snow one of these days – the Municipal Snow Clearing Maps are available on the Municipal Web Page. The maps show which roads are scheduled to be plowed, as not all roads are kept open through the winter.

We hope that you all have a wonderful Christmas season and are able to take in some concerts and celebrations. If you would like to attend a Christmas Eve church service, the schedules for both local churches and the churches in Amaranth are listed on Page 2.

Feel free to forward us any news that can be included in the upcoming issues of the Langruth Views. It is always great to hear from you.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Take care,

Michelle Teichroeb

Emily Made “90”!

A big thank-you to everyone who called and also for all the lovely Birthday Cards. Thanks to the Seniors for the lovely supper and thanks to Kathy and Cheryl for the Birthday Cake.

The highlight of the evening was when my daughter Cheryl, granddaughter Chanell and niece Phyllis from Saskatoon walked into the hall in time for supper.

What a lovely surprise.

Special thanks to my children. We all met on Saturday and had a lovely day together.

Love to everyone who made my 90th Birthday special.
Thanks again,
Love Emily

Police Dog Tracks Suspect through Wooded Area Near Langruth

Source: Royal Canadian Mounted Police in Manitoba Facebook Page; Global News, <https://globalnews.ca/>, November 10, 2023

On November 8, 2023, at approximately 12:25 pm, Amaranth RCMP received a report of a suspicious vehicle driving in and out of yards on Road 50 West in the RM of Westlake-Gladstone. The side-by-side off-road vehicle had two occupants, and when the vehicle became inoperable, they ran into a nearby wooded area north of Road 50 West and Road 92 North.

Police arrived on the scene and quickly determined the off-road vehicle was stolen from the Sandy Bay First Nation area. With assistance from Manitoba First Nations Police, the area was contained and RCMP Police Dog Services was called to assist. While Police Dog Services was en route, a female exited the wooded area and was taken into custody. The male suspect was still in the trees and was advised through police loud hailer that Police Dog Services was contacted and the dog would be deployed. The male suspect, determined to be Blake Beaulieu, 32, of Winnipeg, remained hidden.

Police Service Dog Jolt arrived on scene and began tracking. Jolt located Beaulieu on the other side of the bush line attempting to conceal himself in a woodpile. Beaulieu again attempted to flee, but was apprehended by Jolt and her handler.

Beaulieu was wanted on warrants for a number of offences, including two assaults and Robbery with Other Offensive Weapon. He is now charged with Possession of Property Obtained by Crime over $5000, Resist/Obstruct Peace Officer x2, and Mischief.

We Live In Hope

Adapted from David Sparks

We live in hope,

- that our hidden talents will be recognized.
- that our family and loved ones will be ready to take on life's challenges.
- that we will believe in ourselves despite having feelings of doubt.
- that we are surrounded by those who see an opportunity for positive change.
- that those who are sick are surrounded by healing energy.
- that those who are troubled or depressed will find a listening ear.
- that those affected by floods, drought or famine find long-term relief.
- that those that have died have found peace and the grieving find comfort.
- that as our life ends we will be surrounded by love.

We live in hope.
